Independent Candidates.

The press of the state is chars in unmistakeable terms those se who have permitted their thirst for office to lead them into deliberate attempts, independent candidates, to disorganize the great party of intelligence, econd and order. The efforts of such men when so much depends upon the overthrow of radicalism, cannot be too severely reprobated. The want of patriotism, and the excess of selfishness that lie at the root of these schemes of disorganiza tion deserve the bitterest scorings that the mind of man can invent. And we are glad to note the fact that the so called 'independents" of Georgia are in a fair way to appreciate Bulwer's lines on the power of the pen. Their treacherous conduct calls for every lick they have got If the necessity for political parties could be brought home to every voter, here would be no such anomaly as an independent candidate. If every man ould be made to see that a party convention is the nearest expression possible of the wishes of the majority, that it is the only way by which unanimity of action can be secured upon any question, ve would hear very few contemptuous re marks about party trammels. As in most ountries, there are two great parties in these United States. The gulf between them is wide and deep. They represent two entirely different lines of policy. At no point, in no way, do they approach each other. One is conservative, the other radical. Every honest man belongs in one camp or the other, for there is no half-way house. The two parties squarely onfront each other. Both are of necessi ty thoroughly organized. The members of either meet at an appointed time and place. They adopt a platform in accordance with the larger design, and nominhus expressed. That action is not the policy of one man, but a compromise of, perhaps, thousands of minds, every one of which is entitled to the same attention, espect and authority-the better judgnent of the majority: And every honorman accepts best attainable result under the circumstances, although it probably does not meet the entire ap

Every citizen should take pride in the party of his choice. He should attend he primary meeting, and do all he can o prevent mistakes in either platform or icket. And when they do occur, as they sometimes will, he should work just as ffectively for the preservation intact of that organization, which is the surest reliance for all political good in the future.

Direct Trade

We see in our Savannah exchanges an dvertisement of a steamship line beween that port and Liverpool. The steamship Arbitrator left Liverpool on he 15th instant, to be followed by others of the same line. With the low through ates offered by the rail roads connecting Savannah with the interior towns and the west, excellent facilities are afforded the merchants of the south and west to get their goods from Europe at the cheap est possible price. We again call the a tention of importers to this enterprise which only requires proper support at this time, to be of the greatest benefit to the country. Support it at its inception, and it will become permanent. We pub lish the following letter to show what has een accomplished: SAVANNAH, GA., September 15, 1874 Col. C. H. Olmstead, Agent Direct Trad Inion, Savannah, Ga.: DEAR SIR:-Our friends in Liverpool are exceedingly de-strous of engaging in direct trade with avannah, and if any inducements are of fered by merchants and exporters, a regular line will be run—weekly if necessary. All arrangements are consummated with the rail road companies about through rates, and goods can be imported via Savannah to interior points as cheaply a via New York. Any cotton or other ar cles consigned to our care, will be for arded free of commission.

The latest batch of "independent candidates" includes R. L. Mott for congressman in the 4th district; G. R. Duke and J. M. Potts for representatives in Jackson county, and Robt. W. Trapp for representative in Baldwin county

It is rumored in the upper counties, we understand, that the Hon. Joshua Hill, late United States senator, will shortly declare himself an independent candidate for congress in this district. We do not know whether the rumor i entitled to credence. stood all along that Mr. Hill had posi tively declined running .- Athens Watch

According to a proclamation duly i sued, it is definitely settled that Bryant, the customhouse candidate for congress in the first district, is to be opposed by Jesse Wimberly. The latter has the advantage of being a scalawag instead of carpet-bagger, and is pretty thoroughly acquainted with his ground. In addition to this, he will receive positive aid and comfort from that virulent but cunning old coon, Tunis G. Campbell. It really seems that Bryant is leading a foriorn hope, though it is possible his natural shrewdness may prevail over Wimberly's popularity. However, it is none of our funeral. The democrats propose to elect the Hon, Julian Hartridge over both of these disreputable persons, and our allus-ion to them is prompted only by the cunes accompanies con riosity that someting te candidates to carry out the wishes tempt. - Savannah News.

Hon, L. N. Trammell is a member of of its most active and liberal stewards He is also a trustee of the female college at that place. The situation remains essentially unchanged. Gov. McEnery has arrived in the capital; the parish officials of the new regime are rapidly and quietly taking their places; the members of the McEnery legislature are hurrying to New Orleans shun. In short, the support of such a and an ominous concentration of all the available troops of the United States in All eyes are turned towards Washington Speaking of the probable action of the president, the New Orleans Times, of Wednesday morning, says: "To recog nize the McEnery government now would be a reflection on his own past course as well as on that of his chief law officer. and to sustain the old de facto rule after it has lost its de facto feature would be scarcely less embarrassing." The same paper goes on to state that the new incumbents have now assumed de facto prerogatives, and that a military remedy is the only one that the president can apply with any show of consistency. It anticipates military rule, and seems to welcome t in these concluding words: "If, for a few years, we could get rid of the enormous and, to a large extent, nnecessary expenses of a state govern-nent, we might, as a people, get back to the substantial issues of peace and pros-perity. Few would complain of the exa military government if, by enduring them for a season, they could et rid of the corruption and usurpation brough which the state has been so sadly impoverished."

This would be a sorrowful ending of a brilliant endeavor, but perhaps it is the raised if their services were required. best that is attainable. We can only wait, and hope that the blood of brave men has not been shed in vain. The de cision cannot long be delayed.

Peace ! Peace !

By reference to our dispatches, it wil seen that, in the interest of peace, the patriots of Louisiana have surrendered to Gen. Emory, commanding the Department of the Gulf; and that they have peaceably retired to their homes. Thus New Orleans presents such an appearance as Venice did with the armed Austrian parading her streets.

The war is over. Dut Louisiana not defeated. She has forced her wrongs upon the attention of the world, and she nust have a hearing. This hearing can have but one result-the consigning of Kellogg and his retainers to an infamy too deep to be imagined.

A remarkable discovery has been made by Penn. It is no less than the telegrams proving that Carpenter used his election oill as a blackmailing agent. Further details will be given in to-day's

REPAIRING TO ACTION. WASHINGTON, September 17.-The president this morning directed orders to be sent to the Twenty-Second infantry to proceed to New Orleans at once. This regiment is stationed along the lakes The president also directed special orders to be sent to Rear Admiral Mullaney, at Key West, to proceed at once with three vessels of his fleet to New Orleans, and on his arrival to report to the secretary of the navy, by telegraph, for further or-

A WORD PROM PACKARD. WASHINGTON, September 17 .- The following dispatch has fust been received

NEW ORLEANS, September 17. Attorney General Williams, Washington,

Matters remain as yesterday. The leaders of the mob are endeavoring to restrain violence, fearing the effect north. Several parish governments have been overthrown by the Leaguers. S. B. PACKARD. (Signed)

United States Marshal. THE FEARS OF A GUILTY CONSCIENCE The attorney general has received numerous requests from U. S. Marshals in the states of Alabama, Tennessee Mirsissippi, Arkansas, and South Caro lina, praying for U. S. troops to protect both colored and white republicans. No such requests have been received from North Carolina, Virginia, nor Georgia, Gen. McDowell has ordered all available forces in his district to proceed to New Orleans forthwith ON TO NEW ORLEANS. WASHINGTON, September 17. — The overnment has information this morning that the orders issued for the move ment of troops to New Orleans have been fully carried out, and that the troops have all started for their destination. The other troops who were ordered to are reported as ready.

"LOIL" VOLUNTEERS The officers were recorded yesterday and last night, of over tweenty-five thousand volunteers from different sections of the north and west, with the assurance that ten times that number could be

A RAY OF PEACE.
Official dispatches from New Orleans port the situation unchanged, but say is believed there that Gov. McEnery is using his influence in behalf of peace, and that through his influence the Penn party will decide to surrender to General Emory all the public buildings and other property captured from the Kellogg party, but that on no account will they surrender anything to Kellogg. A surrender to Gen. Emory would be satisfactory o the government. The excitement in Washington has almost entirely subsided. the belief having become general that there will be no further trouble.

STATE TAX SUSPENDED. New Orleans, September 17. - Every thing last night was in statu quo. Nea all the county parishes have installed sion officers, some being republicans. Graham, state auditor, issued a circular suspending the tax sales and prohibiting Kellogg from acting.

AN ADVANCE BY THE BANKERS. The bank presidents advanced $10,000, nd Penn inaugurated his government.

M'ENERY'S MOVEMENTS. McEnery reached Magnolia, Miss. was stopped by request to remain t wanted. Penn's party don't intend let McEnery reap the benefits.

KELLOGG'S FRAUDS "UNEARTHED." Penn claims to have discovered telegrams from Carpenter, Gen. Butler an others demanding money, which Kellogg complied with. Carpenter, who, it is "alleged," introduced the election bill into the senate, made a blackmailing oper the senate, made a blackmaning open tithn on Kellogg, and Kellogg paid larg sums to keep him quiet. Butler is "a leged" to be equally compromised, and is "alleged" that the attorney-general ha the interesting papers put into the po-session of Howard Caleb for public

New York, September 17.—The situation in Louisiana is commented on her by the people and the press. The World ridicules the idea of reinstating Kellogrand says at the present moment civiorder in Louisiana is obviously undisturbed. Other parties vary in opinior respecting the claims of McEnery and Kellogg, but all agree in the imprudence of Penn's action, and that the reinstatement and support of Killogg by the Government is an unavoidable legal necessity under the circumstance.

If the Louisiana overthrow were com-plete, it would furnish a precedent to be quickly followed in South Carolina. A number of politicians are leaving for Washington, where they will safely watch events. A Herald Jackson special says, Gov. Ames, Gen. North, and Gov. Neavis say that for the government not to sustain Kellogy would lead to disorders in all the econstructed states, and encourage disorganizers and revolutionists to despers means. They consider the state government of Mississippi is perfectly aafe. A MIDNIGHT CONSULTATION. AT THE CUSTOMHOUSE. Your correspondent interviewed Packard and Kellogg. The former regarded affairs as serious. The latter was very positive, declaring that he would be sustained and restored. This is on a part with his usual language of bluff. Kel ogg's headquarters are in the top of the customhouse, which building now used as a refuge for radical pol cians, a few pretending to fear persona violence, all there really to appear mar tyrs at Washington. Among the inmates are collector Casey, his deputy, Herwig, and numerous state officials. Provisions are furnished from outside, but at whose expense is unknown. Poker and whisky

ATLANTA, September 17, 1874.

Hon. S. B. Spencer, Mayor of Atlanta,— DEAR Sin: A number of the members of the city council, as well as other officials who are compelled to attend the meetings of council, have, we are informed, expressed an earnest desire to hear the fecture to be delivered by Dr. Munesy, under the auspices of our association, in this city, on to-morrow, Friday, evening. The time appointed for the lecture is, unfortunately, the exact time for the meeting of the city council.
Would it not be possible to change the hour for the council meeting to-morrow evening, so as to allow the members of the council, and other city officers to embrace the rare opportunity presented of hearing, perhaps, the most gifted orator in the south?

Very respectually,

Very respectfully, D. M. BAIN, H. W. GRATY, B. H. HILR, JR.,

MAYOR'S OFFICE, ATLANTA, To Messrs. Henry Hillyer, D. M. Bain, H. V Grady, B. H. Hill, Jr., Lecture Committe Young Men's Library Association: GENTLEMEN: Your communication of the late has just this moment been handed me and I hasten to reply.

Being fully satisfied that there is a ver general desire on the part of the city officials, in common with our fellow-citizens, to hear Dr. Munsey, the distinguished orator, on tomorrow evening, in accordance with your request, I will convene the city council at an earlier hour, of which due notice will be morrow evening, in accordance with your request, I will convene the city council at an earlier hour, of which due notice will be given, for the threefold purpose of—first, securing to ourselves a perfect treat in hearing the great orator; and, second, paying a just tribute to a distinguished southerner; and, third, as a hearty indorsement of the organization you represent.

With the hope, gentlemen, that a house full to overflowing will greet your eloquent lecturer to-morrow evening, I have the honor to be,

Yours truly,

S. B. SEENCER, Mayor.

A Douglas County Letter. CHAPEL HILL, September 15, 1874. Editors Constitution: I was pleased at the way the candidates in DeKalb county exby Lattors constitution. I was preased at the way the candidates in DeKaib county expressed their views the other day at the barbecue, especially on the dog and the bond question. The candidates for the legislature in every county should define their positions before the day of the election. I feel somewhat interested in the dog law, and have one passed. We want more sheep and of a better quality; but we shall never have them until we have a law to protect the farmers against dogs. I don't propose to make it a general, but a local law; and where counties prefer sheep to dogs give them their choice and vice versa. I will now give you the substance of a bill that I have heretofore suggested to some of the members of the legislature. Put a sax of fifty cents on every dog, to be assessed and collected with the state and county taxes, and paid over by the collector county taxes, and paid over by the collector to the ordinary of the county, to be held by him and denominated as a sheep fund. In the first place make the owner of the dog responsible for the sheep killed by his dog when the proof is sufficient to convict; but in the absence of proof and the non-solvency of the owner of the dog let him with the proper proof of his sheep having been killed by dogs, draw his pay from this fund at the same valuation that he put on his sheep when he gave them in ounty taxes, and paid over by the collecte put on his sheep when he gave them in the tax receiver. And at the end of the to the tax receiver. And at the end of the fiscal year let the ordinary turn over whatever is in his hands of this fund to the school fund of the county. And if there should have been no sheep killed in the county during the year, taey could not have been taxed for a more noble and glorious purpose than education. Let the old pinefields of Georgia that have been worn out by the cultivation of cotton in the days of land butchery be converted into sheepfolds, and the land reclaimed. There should be no more necessity for the United States importing wool and woolen goods than there porting wool and woolen goods than the is for her to import cotton. In 1871 the United States imported 70,000,000 pounds of wool, and paid out during the same year for woolen goods, imported from other countries, $44,000,000. All of this money should have been kept at home to enrich our own ountry and people, instead of other coun

SPORT AT PONCE DELEON.—The "boys" enjoyed considerable sport at Ponce de Leon spring yesterday. Four pigeons were turned loose by hand instead of the trap. W. E. Venable killed two and Dr. James D. The boys evidently enjoyed the sport.

SEVERAL young gentlemen have appealed to us to urge upon the Georgia railroad a reduction of fare, especially between here and Covington. I left your city bound for this college that you work you towned it. Bartow and I left your city bound for this college about one week ago, stopped in Bartow and Gordon counties for several days. The majority of the farmers in those counties are in high spirits, expecting good corn and cotton crops. Some of them think that the cotton will suffer some from rust, and in places they say corn has suffered from drought. There is one particular feature of the farming in north Georgia, which the farmers of the middle and southern parts of the state would do well to emulate. It is this the farmers do not go in debt for fertillizers, giving in payment mortgages, etc., on their crops.

I found considerable excitement in those counties in regard to the coming elections. Five or six candidates in Gordon for the legslature—no nomination this year.

In east Tennessee and this part of Vir ginia the wheat crop was good. In man places the cotton crop will be almost a com-plete failure on account of the long drought been plenty rain, and the corn is looking very fine.

The college here is in a prosperous condition. Many new students have marriculated, and others are coming fu. I think there will be more boys here this year than have been for several years past. Nearly every

Our citizens were aroused by the alarm of fire, this morning at half-past three o'clock, and on repairing to the seene we found the brick building belonging to Mr. John W. Hill, in a sheet of flame. For some time the Monitor office, Dr. Andrews' drug store, and Northcutt & Johnson's dry goods store were in imminent danger; and but for the mobile exertions of citizens, and the hands of the W. & A. railroad construction train, which was fortunately present—a large portion of the business part of town would have been swept away.

There were two store rooms in Mr. Hill's building—one occupied by the postoffice and by himself as a storage room a large lot of bacon being stored in it at the time. The other room was occupied by J. S. Anthony as a tin shop. [Acworth Monitor Extra.]

First Bale at Acworth. ACWORTH, GA., September 17, 1874. Editors Constitution: The first bale of new tton was brought here to-day by David Jiles, and sold to S. Lemon & Co. for sixteen cents. Agricultural Report.

[By Telegraph to The Constitution.]

WASHINGTON, September 17 .- The Sepmber returns of the department indicate n average condition of 93 against 95 in eptember, 1873. The acreage of the crop is seven per cent, greater than last year which would bring the aggregate yield early on an average of last year's acreage. All of the South Atlantic and Gulf States are below an average, except Alabama, at 101. The maximum of the whole country is 120. Chamber of Commerce

At the meeting or the chamber of commerce yesterday, Alderman J. B. Goodwin, on the part of the Old Fellows extended an invitation to the members of the chamber to be present at a banquet at Oglethorpe Park next Tuesday evening to be given to the Grand Lodge I. O. O. F. of the United States. About $1,700 had been raised, and while contributions would be thankfully eceived, yet he was not authorized to solicit any. He thought enough would be aised within the order.

On motion, the invitation was accepted, and the thanks of the chamber returned to the Odd Fellows.

ST. CECILIA ACADEMY FOR YOUNG LADIE

THIS institution stands upon an eminence, north of the city of Nashville; overlooking the valley of the Cumberland river. For beauty of scenery and healthfulness it is unequalled by any institution in the South. Sickness is almost unknewn. Chalybeate water, in constant supply, is within the enclosure, and the purest White Sulphur just outside the grounds. The course of study is thorough and solid; the system of the school, in accordance with the best models in the country. Retired, yet within easy reach of the city. It is for young ladies, all the advantages, and none or the drawbucks reach of the city. It is for young lance, and the advantages, and none of the drawbacks of the city schools. The Academy refers with confidence for verification of its past efficiency to its many finished graduates, and its pupils scattered throughout the South. Address, MOTHER SUPERIOR, ST. CECILIA ACADEMY, Nashville, Tenn.

ANDERSON, S. C., August 1, 1873.

This is to certify that I have been blind for the last three years, during which time I have spent several hundred dollars in trying to obtain relief, but without success. I had almost despaired of ever being able to see, when Dr. J. W. Gurley informed me that my case was Cataract, and by an operation, he believed that he could restore my sight. I consented, and on the 17th of February last, he operated upon my eyes. On the seventh day after, I was able to distinguish objects at a distance. My sight has improved ever since, and now (August 1st) feel that, with the aid of my glasses, I can see as well as any person of my age (67), and am able to attend to all my business—which tenders me a happy man, being brought from darkness to light.

Dr. Gurley operated on my grandson for crossed eyes, and I can testify to his skill as an Eye Surgeon, by the happy results obtained in this case. The horrible deformity is completely removed, and the young man is rendered happy. Willis Allen.

I was operated on for Cataract by a skilled surgeon of Augusta. Ga., and after being under his care for about four weeks, was discharged in a worse condition than when I went to him, inflammation having deprived me of the amount of vision I had before the operation. In this condition I consulted Dr. J. W. Gurley, who took my case in hand, and on the fifth day after, I was able to return to my family with the eyesight estored. Dr. Gurley's method of operating and after treatment are different and less repainful than any I have undergone.

Other references can be furnished as to patients already cured under his treatment. Arrangements have been made by which patients can obtain board and rooms at from $30 to $40 per month, where they will be under the personal supervision of the surgeon in charge.
